

BENNINGTON BRIEFS.

News of the Town and Village Told Briefly For Busy Readers.

Carl White has been home from Exeter, N. H., for a few days.

W. S. Underwood was among the visitors to the village Saturday.

W. F. Toomey has been confined to the house several days by illness.

Charles M. Bliss returned Friday from a three months absence in Montpelier.

Mrs. J. H. Sheridan of Troy is visiting her sister, Mrs. William F. Toomey.

Mr and Mrs E. C. Bennett were in New York and Boston last week and a portion of this.

Friday the mercury registered 70 degrees above zero and Sunday morning it stood at 18 above.

Miss Grace Sibley has been in Lowell several days, called there by the serious illness of an aunt.

Bishop Michaud and Rev P. J. Barratt, who have been traveling through Cuba, Porto Rico and Mexico, returned home Friday.

J. C. Colgate is having a barn 30x50 feet erected on what is known as the Potter farm, at the western base of Mt. Anthony. Garrett Paddock has the work in charge.

M. S. Childs, formerly of the National Express Company here, now at Manchester Depot, has begun the erection of a new residence.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Bessie Vandenburg to Chas. E. Jackson of Saratoga. The event took place in that village March 25, the Rev. Dr. Joseph Carey officiating.

The sleeper from the north due here at 2.10 a. m. Friday morning, did not arrive here until well into the evening. The train was delayed by the washing out of the Rutland road's fill across the lake.

The high school base ball nine has arranged for two games with the nine from the Drury high school at North Adams. The first game will be played in that city April 27, the second here, May first.

Superintendent Simmons attended a meeting of the Vermont Schoolmasters' Club held in Burlington Friday. He gave an interesting report of the superintendents' convention which he recently attended in Cincinnati.

The parents of Max Severance, who recently died in the Philippines, have been notified that the remains will be brought home and will reach Montpelier some time in July. At the time of his death Severance was staff correspondent for the New York Sun in the Philippines, and that paper has assumed the expense of bringing home the remains.

Among the new companies to file articles of association with the secretary of state last week was the Parker Furniture Company of Bennington and North Adams, $25,000, general merchandise; subscribers, John Parker, North Adams; Charles A. Maurer, W. W. Stewart, C. H. Wakefield, F. E. Tift of Bennington. The headquarters and factory of the company will be located in North Adams.

Sheriff Wilson last week attached the real estate of the Unity Collar and Cuff Company in a suit brought by L. Schlessinger to recover for services which the plaintiff claims were rendered in settling with the insurance companies after the destruction of the mill over a year ago. The ad damnum is placed at $600. The case will come before the June term of the county court.

The Rutland railroad is contemplating extensive improvements to the Bennington and Chatham divisions as soon as work can be commenced. New ties, ballast and straightening some of the curves will be included. Especial attention is to be paid to the Chatham division which is to be put in shape so that the heavy freight engines can pass over it with safety. It is also understood that an electric bell will be put in at the Dewey crossing in this village.
